

Shannon Drawns, Investigative Supervisor
Ohio Division of Real Estate & Professional Licensing

Shannon Drawns joined the Division of Real Estate and Professional Licensing (REPL) in 2007 as an investigator, was later promoted to Investigation Supervisor and is now the Division's Enforcement Chief. Currently, Shannon is responsible for overseeing all investigations initiated by the Division in five program areas, as well as establishing and administering enforcement initiatives.

Shannon earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Capital University in Bexley.

